

On June 2, 2003, I urge you not to change the present rules for ownership. I oppose a vote that leads to more media consolidation, which limits the public's access to information and informed discussion. The airwaves are by law public and no steps ought to be taken to monopolize them even more than they are already.